More About WILLIAM FOWLE:

Residence: Huntley, England

Notes for JOHN WARREN:

Per SAVAGE'S Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 4

WARREN, JOHN, Watertown, came probably in 1630, in the fleet with Sir Richard Saltonstall, then aged about 45, and having wife and children (four certainly are named in his will, and of them only Elizabeth could be born here). There may have been others, but no record of birth or death is found. He was admitted freeman 18 May 1631, chosen selectman 1636-40. Late in life he fell under the censure of the laws, unwisely levelled at dissenting from the religious course of the major part of the inhabitants and Bond informs us of proceedings against him in 1651, 1654, and 1661; but he died in peace, 13 December 1667, aged 82. His wife Margaret died 6 November 1662. She was probably the mother of all his children John, born 1622; Mary; and Daniel, born 1628; beside Elizabeth who married about 1654, James Knapp. Mary married 30 Oct. 1642, John Bigelow.

From Farmer's Genealogical Register of the First Settlers of New England:
WARREN, JOHN, Watertown, came to N. E. 1630, freeman 1631, d. 13 Dec. 1667.

From Pope's The Pioneers of Massachusetts:
WARREN, WARRIN, John, Watertown, came [probably] in 1630. Frm. May 18, 1631. Town officer.
Sympathized with Quakers. In court concerning baptism, (8) 1651. [Mdx. Files.] Wife Margaret d. Nov. 6, 1662.
Ch. John, Mary, (m. John Bigelow,) Daniel, Elizabeth, (m. James Knapp).
He d. 13 (10) 1667, [ae. 82.] He made will 30 Nov. prob. 16 Dec. 1667, being aged; beq. to ch. Daniel, John,
Mary Begelow and Elizabeth Knope; to gr. ch. Mary B.; to Michell, dau. of Richard Bloyce, dec.; to each gr. ch.

From "Bullard and Allied Families"

He had a homestead and seven other lots, aggregating 188 acres. John Warren, though a member of the Puritan church, was in sympathy with the Quakers, and was the subject of much criticism and abuse by certain church officials. He retained his membership in the church, however, and died, at peace with its doctrines, December 13, 1667, aged 82 years. His wife Margaret (surname unknown), died November 6, 1662. His will dated November 30, 1667, was proved December 17 of that year..."

from The Great Migration Begins

JOHN WARREN

ORIGIN: Nayland, Suffolk

MIGRATION: 1630

FIRST RESIDENCE: Watertown

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: Even though he was a member of the church, he was frequently cited for failing to attend public worship. John Coolidge and John Whitney testified that John Warren and Thomas Arnold "did absent themselves from the public ordinances, more than 4 times before their presentment" [Pulsifer 36]. Mr. Jeremiah Norcross and David Fiske deposed in court that John Warren and Thomas Arnold had absented themselves from the public ordinances on the Lord's Days both at Watertown and elsewhere. John pleaded that he had been absent elsewhere on six of the Sabbaths in question, but he was still fined 5s. for each absence [Pulsifer 36]. Bond speculates that John Warren was a Baptist [Bond 619].

FREEMAN: 18 May 1631 [MBCR 1:366].

EDUCATION: He signed his will by mark. His inventory included "one silver spoon, two Bibles and other books," valued at £1 10. In his will he bequeathed to his daughter Elizabeth "a book called the plaine man's pathway to heaven."

OFFICES: Chosen Watertown selectman, 30 [November?] 1635, 6 December 1639 [WaTR 1:2,5]; committee to lay out highways, 14 November 1635 [WaTR 1:2]; committee to divide land, 10 January 1647/8 [WaTR 1:12].

ESTATE: Granted sixty acres in Great Dividend, 25 July 1636 [WaBOP 5]; granted thirteen acres in Beaverbrook Plowlands, 28 February 1637/8 [WaBOP 7]; granted thirteen acres in Remote Meadows, 26 June 1637 [WaBOP 9]; granted a 162 acre Farm, 10 May 1642 [WaBOP 12].

In the Inventory of Grants John Warren held ten parcels: homestall of twelve acres; nine acres of upland; three acres of meadow; thirteen acres of plowland in the Further Plain; thirteen acres of meadow in the Remote Meadows; sixteen acres and a half of upland beyond the Further Plain; sixty acres of upland in the Great Dividend; one acre and a half of meadow in Ward's Meadow; one acre and a half of meadow near the Little Plain; and two acres of marsh [WaBOP 100].

In the Composite Inventory he held eight parcels: homestall of twelve acres; nine acres of upland; three acres of meadow; thirteen acres of plowland in the Further Plain (Lot 84); thirteen acres of meadow in the Remote Meadows (Lot 50); sixteen acres and a half of upland beyond the Further Plain (Lot 19); sixty acres of upland in the Great Dividend (Lot 26); and a Farm of one hundred sixty-two acres [WaBOP 42-43].

On 30 December 1662 the town of Watertown ordered that a ten or twelve acre parcel of land be laid out to Daniel Warren "in satisfaction of some land that John Warren his father bought of the town" [WaTR 1:75].

In his will, dated 30 November 1667 and proved 16 December 1667, John Warren Sr. "being aged & weake in body" bequeathed to "my son Daniell Warren the p[ar]cell of land that he now lives on being about the quantity of sixteen acres with all the apurtenances"; to "my son John Warren & my son Daniel Warren my dividend and all my remote meadow with another p[ar]cell of remote land ... in Watertown ... [to] my two sons equally"; to "my son Daniell Warren my best flock bed with my green rug ... and two of my four pewter platters"; to "my daughter-in-law Mary Warren wife to my son Daniell one pewter porringer"; to "my daughter Mary Begalow a p[ar]cell of remote land being the quantity of 16 acres ... already in her possession"; to "my daughter Mary Begalow one small pewter dish"; to "my daughter Elizebeth Knappe plow land lying on the further plain in Watertown w[hi]ch her husband James Knappe hath formerly been possessed of"; to "my aforesaid daughter Elizebeth a book called the plaine man's pathway to heaven"; to "my grandchild Daniel Warren Son to my son Daniell Warren one of my cows"; to "my grandchild Mary Begalow a lined box that was my wife's"; to "Michall Bloyse daughter to Richard Bloyse deceased one pewter plate"; to "all of my grand children to each of them the sum of 2s. 6d."; residue "to my beloved son John Warren making and ordaining him my whole and sole executor" [MPR Case #23862].

The inventory of the estate of "John Warren Senior late deceased of Watertown" was taken 13 December 1667 and was untotaled, but included £123 in real estate: "one tenement of houses and ten acres of upland and three acres of meadow £60"; "sixteen acres of waste land £8"; "sixty acres of dividant land £15"; "thirteen acres of meadow £10"; "farm land one hundred and fifty acres £30." Among the interesting things found in his inventory were "one musket, one sword, one halberd," valued under 15s. [MPR Case #23862].

BIRTH: Baptized Nayland 1 August 1585, son of John and Elizabeth (Scarlett) Warren [NEHGR 64:353].

DEATH: Watertown 13 December 1667, aged 82 [WaVR 29].

MARRIAGE: By 1615 Margaret ____; she died Watertown 6 November 1662 [WaVR 24].

CHILDREN (all baptized Nayland, Suffolk):

- i MARY, bp. 23 April 1615; bur. Nayland 17 December 1622.
- ii ELIZABETH, bp. 25 June 1618; bur. Nayland 25 November 1622.
- iii SARAH, bp. 20 April 1620; bur. Nayland 7 September 1621.
- iv JOHN, bp. 12 May 1622; m. Watertown 11 July 1667 Michal (Jennison) Bloise [WaVR 1:29], widow of Richard Bloise and daughter of Robert and Grace (____) Jennison.
- v MARY, bp. 12 September 1624; m. Watertown 30 October 1642 John Bigelow [WaVR 1:9].
- vi DANIEL, bp. 25 February 1626/7; m. Watertown 10 December 1650 Mary Barron [WaVR 15], daughter of Ellis Barron [TAG 20:135-36].
- vii ELIZABETH, bp. 21 July 1629; m. by 1655 James Knopp, son of WILLIAM KNOPP (eldest child b. Watertown 21 April 1655 [WaVR 17]).

ASSOCIATIONS: John Warren was one of several immigrants to come from Nayland in Suffolk, some others being JOHN FIRMIN and ISAAC STEARNS .

COMMENTS: In the 1629 Bishop's Visitation of Nayland, Archdeaconry of Sudbury, Diocese of Norwich, John Warren was the first in a list of seven men from that parish who were presented "for not kneeling at the communion," a common Puritan offense [VIS 6/1, Norwich Diocesan Archives, Norfolk and Norwich Record Office].

In the grants of Beaverbrook Plowlands and Remote Meadows John Warren received thirteen acres, but his immediate family at this time comprised six individuals (himself, wife and four children); this implies wealth well above the average, and this is borne out by the size of his homestall and Farm grants.

Elizabeth French in 1910 published English wills and parish register entries which identified the English origin of John Warren and three generations of his paternal ancestry [NEHGR 64:348-55]. Examination of the originals of the Nayland registers reveals only one discrepancy, in the baptismal date for the first daughter Elizabeth.

In 1654, John Warren Sr. gave Hugh Mason six pounds of peas and wheat and nine pounds of powder for the town so that Mason would make fireworks at the general training in Cambridge [WaTR 1:38].

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTE: The most recent published accounts of John Warren and his family are by John B. Threlfall in 1990 [GMC50 479-93] and by Dean C. Smith and Melinde Lutz Sanborn in 1996 [Kempton Anc 463-91].

Notes for JOHN BIGELOW:

Per SAVAGE'S Genealogical Dictionary of New England Settlers, v. 1

BIGELOW, BAGULEY, or BIGLOW, JOHN, Watertown 1636, blacksmith, found by Mr. Somerby to be son of Randle of Wrentham in Co. Suffolk and baptized 16 February 1617, of course by the hand of Rev. John Philip, the rector, who came to our country two years after Bigelow and lived some time at Dedham, but on the overthrow of the Bishops' domination in England, went back to his old living. He married 30 October 1642, Mary, daughter of John Warren, who, Bond says, was the earliest marriage on town records. Had John, born 27 October following; Jonathan, 11 December 1646; Mary, 14 or 18 March 1649; Daniel, 1 December 1650; Samuel, 28 October 1653; Joshua, 5 November 1655; Elizabeth 15 or 18 June 1657; Sarah, 29 September 1659; James; Martha, 1 April 1662; Abigail, 4 February 1664; Hannah, March 1666, died very soon, as did, also, a son without name in December 1667. His wife died 19 October 1691, and he married 2 October 1694, Sarah, daughter of Joseph Bemis of W. and died 14 July 1703. His will of 4 January of that year was proved 28 July following. His inventory shows good estate.

From Farmer's Genealogical Register of the First Settlers of New England:

BIGELOW or BIGGELY, JOHN, Watertown 1642, had a son John, b. 1643. Of the name of Bigelow and Biglow, 24 had grad. at the N. E. colleges in 1828.

From Pope's The Pioneers of Massachusetts:

BIGELOW, BIGULAH, BAGLEY, John, blacksmith, Watertown, proprietor 1642; bought house and land 1649; took oath of fidelity 1652. He m. 30 (8) 1642, Mary, dau. of John Warren; she d.
